Gaesdonck Parents' letter

No. 9/2024-25

27.11.2024

Dear Gaesdonckers,

Open house day 2024

Our Open House Day this coming Saturday, 30 November 2024, is casting its shadow ahead. Many classes have prepared stations and thought about how we can present ourselves as a Gaesdonck boarding school community in a colourful and diverse way to our hopefully numerous guests.

Just for the sake of completeness, we would like to point out once again that the open day is a normal school day, albeit a somewhat shortened one, with compulsory attendance. Your children will be compensated for this day elsewhere during the school year with an additional day off. An exemption can therefore only be granted under the same conditions as on other regular school days.

Attached you will find the corresponding special bus timetable.

Review of St Martin's procession

Our Sextans and Quintans and their siblings enjoyed a wonderfully atmospheric St. Martin's procession on 13 November.

Many thanks to everyone who helped!

A worthy finale - the anniversary concert

"The Gaesdonck stage has never seen so many musicians - and you can't fit any more on it," summarised music teacher Daniel Verhülsdonk at the anniversary concert. It really was another highlight at the end of our anniversary year. Almost 160 students and numerous alumni came together in the auditorium and delivered a brilliant firework display of choral pieces, big band specials and joint arrangements. The audience was rightly enthusiastic. As always, you can find more impressions in the news section of our website.

This not only marks the end of our anniversary year, but also our concert programme for this year. The Advent concert that is customary in "normal" years will not take place this year.

Library tour for parents

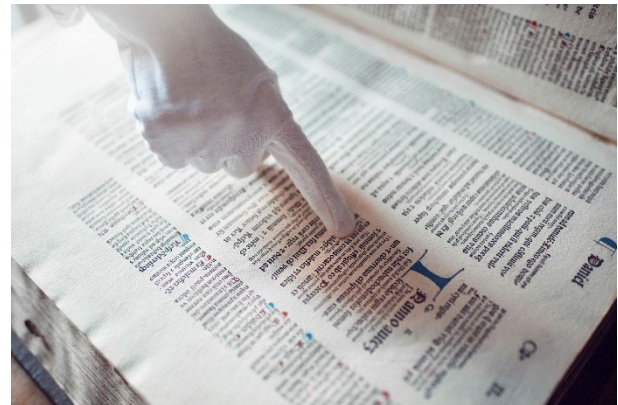

In the course of the anniversary year, we were repeatedly asked, whether there was also an opportunity for parents to visit our historic monastery library with its numerous documents, manuscripts and early prints ("incunabula").

With pleasure! On

Saturday, 14 December at 3.00 pm

Librarian Jörg Baden opens the doors to all interested and gives an insight into the numerous treasures hidden above our cloister.

As the maximum number of people in the library is limited, prior registration is absolutely necessary. Please send an email directly to grootens@gaesdonck.de.

Musical film premiere

For the première of the musical film "Die Ewigkeit ist nicht genug" on the evening of our Open Day,

30 November at 7.00 pm

tickets are still available.

So if you would like to immerse yourself once again - or even for the first time - in the special musical atmosphere of May this year, you can still purchase tickets at a cash price of €5 from our administration, directly from Mr Verhülsdonk or at the box office.

Outlook: Start of the Christmas holidays

Even though there are still a few weeks (and class tests) to go before the Christmas holidays, here's a reminder:

On 20.12.24, lessons end after the 5th period. The buses leave at 12:35 pm.

WDR Christmas series "Advent at boarding school"

Over the next four weeks until Christmas, a short special about the Advent season here at Gaesdonck will be shown every Wednesday on WDR Lokalzeit Duisburg. Filming began this afternoon. The remote television team accompanied our students as they worked with our gardener Mr Beemelmans to make the Advent decorations for their houses and the large Advent wreaths for the lobby and the monastery church.

The programmes are still available in the media library for some time after broadcast.

We wish you and your families not too much hustle and bustle during the forthcoming Advent season, serenity where possible and a pleasant time together.

Maybe we'll see you at the open day or at the film premiere next Saturday.

Yours sincerely
